Talking Homework

	QUESTIONS TO ASK YOUR CHILD <small>(this is to stimulate talk with your child – there is no need for you to write anything down or return the sheet to school)</small>
MATHS In Maths, we have been revising our knowledge of multiplication. We have been reviewing formal written methods as well as exploring how we can apply rules to aid out mental strategies. We have been multiplying whole numbers and decimals by 10, 100 and a 1,000.	What rules do you know about place value holders and the power of 10 you are multiplying? What is $23476.7 \times 100?$ $348.61 \times 1000?$
ENGLISH Reading This week we finished 'The Unforgotten Coat' During 'Talk Detective' sessions, we discussed the 'Big' questions the book raised about refugees. Writing Answering our Curriculum question – 'Do the Vikings deserve their reputation?' We looked at features of discussion texts and did some final research before completing our reports.	What is your opinion on refugees? Has it changed since reading the book? Did the Vikings deserve their reputation? Explain your answer fully.
SCIENCE For our final investigation on this topic, we conducted an experiment about heart rate and exercise. In groups, we conducted an activity, recorded our results and drew conclusions.	Explain how we conducted our investigation. What conclusions did you reach about heart rate and exercise?
TOPIC Black History Month We were partnered up in class to research and make a factual presentation on famous black people in history and the present day.	Which famous person did you research? What were their achievements?

We hope you enjoy talking at home about your child's learning this week.

Every child will be set 3 pieces of Mathletics homework each Monday, to be completed by the following Monday. We will also be testing the spellings each Friday. Thank you.
