Secondary Schools 2018.

Dear Parents,

I am proud and delighted to share with you our information on secondary schools for 2018.

Below is a list of our destinations and places gained for secondary schools for July 2018. In some situations the children did not take up the offer of the place, but I thought it would be useful for you to see the range of schools that Allfarthing children achieve places to.

Firstly it is pleasing to see that parents are able to choose from a range of secondary schools. I am working under the ethos that we help all children to get into their school or choice, whether that be state or independent.

You can see, as in many Wandsworth schools, our children go to a range of secondary state schools and there is choice available for parents.

Secondly, this cohort clearly demonstrates that children can get into the school of their choice for secondary school, whether that is a child succeeding through the Wandsworth test state system or through assessments at independent schools. Well done especially to the three academic scholarships that were received for Streatham and Clapham High.

Ultimately, I am saying trust us and stay at the school. We can bring a broad, rich and diverse education to all children. The independent secondary system is highly competitive but from previous years and this year, it is possible to leave Allfarthing to your school of choice at the end of Year 6. We received three academic scholarships to Streatham and Clapham and two sport scholarships to Whigift, which is an excellent achievement.

We are above national expectations at expected standard and greater depth all stages-EYFS, KS1 and KS2. In some areas we are significantly above the national at greater depth e.g. (a comprehensive data table is on the school website)

	KS1 Reading	KS2 Maths	KS2 Writing
Allfarthing Greater Depth	34%	33%	33%
National Greater Depth	25%	23%	18%

I am happy to meet parents when they are considering secondary schools on a personal level and offer my advice specific to your child. Equally if you are considering other options before Year 6, I would very much welcome a conversation with you to reassure you about the quality of education at Allfarthing.

Best wishes
Tom Holmes
